Mass on the Television.

If you have Sky Tv on channel 588 EWTN Loads of religious programmes are aired, along with daily mass. In these trying times we all can still make a spiritual communion. Your priests will continue to offer private masses daily for you and your loved ones.

Please note:

Following the advice from Her Majesty's Government.

At this moment in time we must all follow the advice given to us from the Government and church leaders.

This action is being taken now to address the serious issue concerning us all, without exception.

Under these circumstances it has been deemed necessary to suspend all public Masses in our churches as from Friday 20th March until further notices. Our churches will open as follows: FOR PRIVATE PRAYER

St.John Vianneys will open Saturday from 5pm until 6pm

St. Peter's Church will open on a Sunday Morning at 8:30am until 10am.

The Priory will open on a Sunday

Diary Date!

Tuesday 7th April 2020

*Starting at 7pm
St John Vianney's Church*

Come and celebrate the Sacrament of Forgiveness.

This celebration is now under revue, further details will follow as national events unfold.

Our Parish has a very good webpage. The address is at the top of the newsletter. This will be updated as and when news is given. Please use this tool to gain the correct information, so often fake news and false information can pass around so quickly. Please stay safe, follow the news and keep well.
